All Saints Church, Rayne

Order form for Remembrance Plaque on the Remembrance Wall

The plaques are for the commemoration of those whose remains are interred at the memorial walls.

They are cast in bronze with high relief lettering. The background is a dark brown. There are no visible fixings.

There is room for only two lines of wording on the plaques. The first line to include the person's full name and the second the date of birth followed by the date of death.
The following is an example: -

REGINALD ARCHIBALD PETTIGREW
20TH SEPTEMBER 1895 – 28TH JANUARY 2002

Please fill in the following table using capital letters. Write clearly and check dates and spelling, as incorrect plaques cannot be altered but must be re-made. You would be responsible for any extra costs caused by your mistakes.
Start from the left, leaving spaces where necessary. All lettering will be automatically centred on the final plaque.
Plaques are positioned on the ashes plot wall in chronological order of receipt of order forms.
